

| GLOBAL ACHIEVEMENT        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ The candidate is generally able to communicate about the topics in the test.</li> <li>✗ The candidate finds it difficult to handle the topics and tasks in the test.</li> </ul>                                                                        |
|---------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ The candidate uses a range of grammar and vocabulary accurately and appropriately.</li> <li>✗ The candidate doesn't show enough variety or accuracy of grammar and vocabulary.</li> </ul>                                                              |
| DISCOURSE MANAGEMENT      | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ The candidate extends and organises their answers appropriately. They are fluent and their answers are relevant.</li> <li>✗ The candidate's answers are very short or there is a lot of repetition or hesitation.</li> </ul>                           |
| PRONUNCIATION             | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ The candidate is easy to understand and uses pronunciation features such as intonation and stress appropriately.</li> <li>✗ The candidate is difficult to understand and doesn't use pronunciation features well.</li> </ul>                           |
| INTERACTIVE COMMUNICATION | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ The candidate interacts appropriately with the examiner and their partner. They are able to keep the conversation going without help.</li> <li>✗ The candidate doesn't respond appropriately and needs help to keep the conversation going.</li> </ul> |

| BAND | GLOBAL ACHIEVEMENT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?                                                                                                                                                       |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Handles communication on a range of familiar topics, with very little hesitation.</li> <li>Uses accurate and appropriate linguistic resources to express ideas and produce extended discourse that is generally coherent.</li> </ul> | Can understand and speak about the topics and tasks in the test. Uses the right kinds of language to express themselves and what they say is well organised. |
| 3    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Handles communication on familiar topics, despite some hesitation.</li> <li>Organises extended discourse but occasionally produces utterances that lack coherence, and some inaccuracies and inappropriate usage occur.</li> </ul>   | Can speak at length but sometimes it might not be well organised or there may be some inaccurate language.                                                          |
| 1    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Handles communication in everyday situations, despite hesitation.</li> <li>Constructs longer utterances but is not able to use complex language except in well-rehearsed utterances.</li> </ul>                                             | Says more than yes/no or a one-sentence answer. Limited and not spontaneous.                                                                                 |

| BAND | GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shows a good degree of control of a range of simple and some complex grammatical forms.</li> <li>Uses a range of appropriate vocabulary to give and exchange views on a wide range of familiar topics.</li> </ul>      | Uses grammar and vocabulary accurately and with very few mistakes. Uses a variety of different grammar structures and longer, more complex sentence constructions: noun clauses, relative clauses, passives and verb patterns for example. Topics the candidate has knowledge or personal experience of, like what people do on holiday or what it's like to do different jobs. |
| 3    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shows a good degree of control of simple grammatical forms, and attempts some complex grammatical forms.</li> <li>Uses a range of appropriate vocabulary to give and exchange views on a range of familiar topics.</li> </ul> | Uses different forms of words, phrase, basic tenses and simple clauses. May try to use some examples from Band 5. A variety of words and phrases which are relevant to the topics.                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 1    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shows a good degree of control of simple grammatical forms.</li> <li>Uses a range of appropriate vocabulary when talking about everyday situations.</li> </ul>                                                         | Situations in everyday life such as having a meal, going to school or work or doing hobbies and other activities.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

| BAND | DISCOURSE MANAGEMENT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Produces extended stretches of language with very little hesitation.</li> <li>Contributions are relevant and there is a clear organisation of ideas.</li> <li>Uses a range of cohesive devices and discourse markers.</li> </ul> | The amount of language the candidate should say depends on the task. For example, in Part 1 this means a couple of sentences giving details but in Part 2 this means talking for a full minute. The candidate can present their ideas in a suitable order. For instance, in Part 2 they talk about similarities between the pictures together rather than jumping back and forth between ideas. Words or phrases which help with meaning in a conversation such as you know, well, basically, actually. |
| 3    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Produces extended stretches of language despite some hesitation.</li> <li>Contributions are relevant and there is very little repetition.</li> <li>Uses a range of cohesive devices.</li> </ul>                                                | The examiners expect that at this level, candidates will still have to pause and think of the right word or idea. The candidate gives answers related to the task or question and doesn't go off topic. Words and phrases which show the connections between ideas – therefore, as a result, on the other hand – along with basic devices as below.                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 1    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Produces responses which are extended beyond short phrases, despite hesitation.</li> <li>Contributions are mostly relevant, despite some repetition.</li> <li>Uses basic cohesive devices.</li> </ul>                     | The candidate says more than the minimum. Rather than answering 'twice a week', the candidate might say 'I only watch TV twice a week because I prefer reading'. They may go off topic sometimes. E.g. and, but, so, then, finally.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

| BAND | PRONUNCIATION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Is intelligible.</li> <li>Intonation is appropriate.</li> <li>Sentence and word stress is accurately placed.</li> <li>Individual sounds are articulated clearly.</li> </ul>                        | You can understand the meaning of what the candidate says. The rise and fall of the voice sounds natural. Putting the stress in the right place in a multi-syllable word: comfortable or photographer. For example, saying ð in than/this or ei in eight accurately. |
| 3    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Is intelligible.</li> <li>Intonation is generally appropriate.</li> <li>Sentence and word stress is generally accurately placed.</li> <li>Individual sounds are generally articulated clearly.</li> </ul> | Natural and used properly most of the time. The candidate puts stress in the correct place in a sentence most of the time, such as (on) the words underlined in these examples:What about music? There's the guy, too, talking to the people, but they're walking.                                 |
| 1    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Is mostly intelligible, and has some control of phonological features at both utterance and word levels.</li> </ul>                                                                                       | Easy to understand most of the time. Sometimes uses the features mentioned above (intonation, individual sounds, word and sentence stress) accurately.                                                                                                                                                                              |

| BAND | INTERACTIVE COMMUNICATION                                                                                                                                                                                                    | WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Initiates and responds appropriately, linking contributions to those of other speakers.</li> <li>Maintains and develops the interaction and negotiates towards an outcome.</li> </ul> | Starts conversations. Replies to questions or things their partner says. Refers to things people said earlier in the conversation using phrases like As you said earlier... |
| 3    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Initiates and responds appropriately.</li> <li>Maintains and develops the interaction and negotiates towards an outcome with very little support.</li> </ul>                          | Keeps the conversation going. Opens out the conversation by adding new ideas. Works together to complete the task.                                                                 |
| 1    | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Initiates and responds appropriately.</li> <li>Keeps the interaction going with very little prompting and support.</li> </ul>                                                         | Keeps the conversation going. Without help from the examiner or their partner.                                                                                                            |